This version of Uncle Tom's Cabin interpreted by Stetson's Double Monster Company, which will exhibit at the opera house on Monday evening, January 17, has met with the special approval of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, the immortal authoress of the world-famous drama, from the fact of Manager Stetson's strict adherence to the original text, which is a complete deviation from the custom of other Uncle Tom managers, who interpolate so many attenuated gags, stale jokes and witticisms into their renditions that scarcely a visage is left of the never-to-be-forgotten work.

The full credit of the arrest and capture of John C. Connelly, the baggage master on the cannon ball train between Peoria and Hannibal, who stole a thousand dollar money package from the Peoria express company on December 19th, belongs to Detective Ballard, the Wash official, who resides in Decatur. Honor to whom honor is due. Ballard got the evidence that "nailed Connelly to the cross," and forced him to make a confession, and Ballard did his work so nicely that Connelly gave up everything he had, even to the surrender of a watch, a diamond ring and what cash he had left. Then Ballard "pinched" him and landed him in the Peoria jail. Connelly had spent $847.55 of the amount in furnishing a house for his new made wife at Peoria. It was a clever piece of detective work, and was brought to a head in less than three days.

The State Show.
The state board of agriculture has adopted a resolution by a unanimous vote requesting the members of the present General Assembly to pass a bill providing for the permanent location of the state fair. This is business. No doubt such a bill will be adopted. Now let Decatur get ready for the fight that will follow. We ought to have the fair. Decatur is the best and most central point in the state for the fair. The state fair will be located March 1st. The annual live stock, dairy and poultry shows will be held at Chicago during the month of November next.

To-morrow evening Rev. Mrs. Gibb, at the Universalist church, will review the tract in which Rev. S. S. Hebbard gives the reasons why he "cannot remain a Universalist." Mr. Hebbard is a scholar, and has stood high in the ministry of the Universalist church, having been for some years pastor of the church in this city, where he has many warm friends. Having renounced the faith, it will be interesting to hear what his sister in the ministry may have to say about it.

Going Fast.
Since yesterday morning Mr. M. P. Murphy has taken quite a number of new orders for Logan's book, "The Great Conspiracy." Among those who gave orders are Thomas Andrews, George D. Randolph, J. M. Cloyce, F. W. Haines, F. R. Shull and John Alexander. The book can only be secured on subscription from Mr. Murphy who is the agent for this locality. Those whom he fails to see in person and desire a copy of the excellent work, should drop Mr. Murphy a note through the postoffice. No library is complete without "The Great Conspiracy." Every young man should read it.

SHERIFF MACZY, who is confined to his residence by a serious attack of nervous prostration, is some better to-day. Last evening he commenced to show signs of improvement. He will doubtless be in good shape for active work at the opening of court on Monday.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Mrs. J. E. Coleman, of Columbus, O., is a guest at the New Deming.

Bela Lockwood, the lecturer, was at the Central House last evening.

Senator Johns came up from Springfield last night, and is busy to-day attending to legal business.

Miss Louise Heidle, of Chicago, is a guest of Miss Lou Zimmerman at the Park Hotel.

W. H. Starr is home from a business trip to Chicago. He has contracted a severe cold and cannot speak above a whisper.

Cliff Morrison, late of Lyon's grocery store, is now in the employ of the Pacific Express company, and is on duty at the depot.

John Freeman visited Springfield last evening, and had a chat with Mr. Farwell, the next U. S. Senator, with whom he was very favorably impressed.

Congressman Cannon passed through Decatur last evening, en route from Springfield and Washington. He took tea at the Central hotel.

Frank W. Imboden is going to Kansas City, Mo., to engage in the grain business with his brother, David. He has tendered his resignation as mail carrier, to take effect February 1.

Mrs. John W. Bartholomew, wife of the well-known Wash engineer, who was recently killed by severe lameness of the lungs on her way to church last evening, is some better to-day.

Miss Belle Fulton, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades in the Church street school, has given up her position and will rest the remainder of this year. Miss Fulton has been in the school for nearly 8 years, and it is a source of extreme regret to the school authorities and to her many friends that the condition of her health seems to make this imperative.

The Illinois Midland.
The Illinois Midland dicker is coming to a foins. The present and probable future of the road is sketched in the following from Chicago:

The purchasing committee of the Illinois Midland railway yesterday made the first payment of $400,000 to Special Commissioner M. W. Branson, who is to apportion the money for the payment of taxes and other first preferred claims. Two more payments will have to be made by the purchasers—one Feb. 1, and the other March 1, 1887. The committee expects to be able, however, to secure control of the road after making the second payment. It is quite probable the present receiver, Mr. Conklin, will be appointed general manager of the road by the purchasers.

The parlors of the Park hotel were brilliantly illuminated and festooned last evening and filled to the utmost with friends of Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman in honor of their son Oscar and his bride. At 8.30 members of Goodman's Band, of which the groom is a member, took them by surprise, occupying the office of the hotel and played "Il Trovatore" in a finished manner. Several selections were played, when the company marched to the spacious dining apartment where the feast board was laden with everything the season affords. Pyramids of fruits and cake were used as ornaments. Immediately after supper dancing was indulged in until a late hour, when Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Zimmerman received best wishes from their friends for their future happiness. All pronounced the occasion thoroughly enjoyable. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman will be at home to their friends after Wednesday, the 19th, at No. 259 N. Main street.

Will Soon Resume.
In a short time the Haworth Wagon Company will resume the manufacture of the celebrated Iron Pellet farm wagons at their extensive factory on Broadway. They have a great number of orders from various parts of the country on their books, and will have to hustle to keep ahead. A large force of skillful artisans is connected with the factory.

A Good Showing.
We publish to-day the annual report of Secretary Barnes, of the Commonwealth Insurance Co., which makes a good showing, and to which the attention of our readers is invited.

We Have Not Sold Out.
Neither are we intending to move away, but one thing we are doing, and that is selling good goods just as cheap as they are to be purchased in the city. We are going to stay right here where we have been for fourteen years, and sell to you and all your friends as we handle the past just as cheap as any one, and cheaper a good deal than many, when you take quality and not quantity into consideration. Call and see us.

12-43 Yours Respectfully,
A. H. HELLMAN & SON.

A Sleigh Ride.
Last Wednesday evening a party of Decatur young folks took a sleigh ride to the stock farm of James Keefe, 3 miles southwest of town, to participate in a country party and dance. Dancing was kept up until a late hour, when all returned, delighted with the evening's fun. Those present were Misses Sadie Kirby, Mollie Conell, Katie Dineen, Lelah Adams, Emma Keefe, Agnes Cochran, Jessie Sullivan, Maggie Phelan, Carrie Thrush, and Messrs George Fulton, Charlie Millspaugh, Lew Barnes, Harry Fletcher, Will Blenz, George Edmonds, Charlie Foster, Eli March and George Melhorn.

A Splendid Showing for the Year 1886—The Secretary's Report.

The following is a copy of the annual report of Secretary Barnes read at the recent meeting of the policy holders of the Commonwealth Mutual Insurance Company:

Mr. President, Directors and Policy Holders of the Commonwealth Mutual Insurance Company:
Agreeable to our custom, I have the pleasure of laying before you the results of the business of the Commonwealth Mutual Insurance Company for the year 1886. My report is as follows:

ASSETS.
Premium notes $287,268.52
Real estate mortgages 20,000.00
Cash in Decatur National Bank 8,688.30
Cash in office 625.61
Premiums in course of collection 10,638.63
Accrued interest 1,036.66
Office furniture and fixtures 1,288.50
Total assets $328,862.12

LIABILITIES.
Losses adjusted but not due $ 5,782.20
Other liabilities 506.44
Total liabilities $ 6,288.64

Surplus $322,573.48

The year just past has been more destructive in fires than was 1885. I hoped at this meeting to be able to record a decrease for 1886 in the destruction of property, but with losses of $115,000.00 for 1886 I must stamp the year just past as being the most destructive in the experience of insurance companies. Yet with this lurid record insurance companies as a general thing are enabled to stand a slight increase over the business of 1885. While the losses of this company have been large, I am pleased to say that our receipts have been correspondingly increased, and under the circumstances I feel that we are fortunate in being able to show such a handsome surplus over all liabilities. Since our organization in 1883 we have issued 5,713 policies and have drawn into Decatur $201,252.20. We have paid losses amounting to $126,767.97. From a local company starting with $50,000 in premiums, we have grown to one now possessing $287,268.52, besides having canceled off notes amounting to $115,000.00. Strictly speaking it is not the province of a mutual company to show a large surplus, but merely to keep on hand a sufficient amount to meet its current demands, and hence you will note that we have not been so anxious to show a large cash surplus as we have been to call for as little cash premiums as possible from the pockets of our policy holders. In savings or dividends to our policy holders we stand to-day the second mutual company in the state, and are excelled in a slight degree by only one company which has been in operation about fifteen years. There are now ten successful mutual companies in this state, and over twenty-five in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Missouri and Minnesota, and they are fast convincing the public that the mutual plan of insuring is the cheapest and fully as reliable as the stock plan. Year by year the actual test of mutual insurance is brushing away the cobwebs of ignorance and prejudice, and mutual companies are receiving the rewards sure to be bestowed upon those who strive to benefit the people.

Our local business has been very much increased during the last year, showing that the people of Decatur and Macon county are better understanding the principles of the mutual plan and are hastening to avail themselves of its benefits, while at the same time assisting to build up and establish upon a firm basis an institution that has now proven itself to be worthy of their full confidence and support. It is erroneous and idle to contend that it is of no benefit to have money flow into our city and county. As the business and enterprise of a locality increases in like proportion is property enhanced in value.

I have been fortunate in having the hearty and careful cooperation of your president and board of directors, and I should likewise be guilty of gross injustice if I did not bear testimony to the valuable and faithful services of the employees of this company. Another year of our record has passed in review before the people of Decatur and Macon county. From all I ask a careful and conscientious verdict as to whether or not we have as a company been beneficial to this locality. If said verdict is favorable, is not the company deserving of their confidence and hearty support?

Respectfully submitted,
JNO. A. BARNES, Sec'y.

Passed Away.
Mrs. Caroline G. Stooke, who died at Harriestown on January 13, was the wife of Daniel Stooke, and a lady highly esteemed by all her acquaintances. Her age was 62 years, and her illness was of but one week's duration. She was the mother of four children, Louis Stooke, of Warrensburg, Wesley Stooke, of Buffalo, Mrs. Mary Randle, and Miss Florence Stooke. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and an exemplary christian woman whose death is generally mourned. The funeral will take place from the Methodist church at Harriestown on Sunday at 1 p. m.

The Dora Wiley company gave "Olivette" last night before a comparatively large audience. Golden was a whole team in his George Wilson make-up, and his every appearance, motion and act was the occasion of general laughter. Miss Wiley was superb in her selections. The troupe will give "The Golden Goose" opera to-night as their good-bye performance.

The Next Lecture Course Entertainment.
Dr. Willits, of Louisville, Ky., next Thursday evening, at the opera house. Subject: "Sunshine, or the Search of a Happy Life." The Y. M. C. A. Orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. 15-4dt
